News and Gossip of Washington Society and Social Events

Mrs. William Jennings Bryan Slater is recovering from a fall from Southern pole tournament. given today by Mrs. Matthew T. Scott, The guests, eighteen in number, were seated around an oval table decorated with masses of pink roses and white

Miss Maud Foster will be hostess at a luncheon and bridge party tomorrow at her residence on Massachusetts ave

Mrs. William Mitchell, wife of Captain Mitchell, U. S. A., entertained at lunch-eon Friday complimentary to Mrs. Per-cival Cochran, who is the guest of the Commissioner of Corporations and Mrs. Joseph Davies.

Mrs. Philip Welker gave a luncheon of eight covers followed by bridge today at her apartments in the Parkwood in hon-or of Miss Maud Welker, of Toledo, Ohio, who is her guest.

Mrs. Henry Clifford Stuart is hostess at a bridge party of three tables this afternoon, numbering among her guests members of navy and residential cir-

Several hundred society folk and members of the Diplomatic Corps were guests yesterday at the residence of the ex-Secretary of State and Mrs. John W. Foster when their daughter, Mrs. Robert Language received in honor of Robert Lansing, received in honor of the Misses Lansing, sisters of the coun-selor of the State Department, who are here for a month's visit.

here for a month's visit.

Mrs. Ernest Bicknell, who will leave Washington the last of this month for Europe, where she will join Mr. Bicknell, was the guest of honor yesterday afternoon at a farewell reception given by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ramsay at their home at Euclid and Fourteenth streets. Before the reception began Mrs. Bicknell met the students of Fairmont Seminary and later Miss Mabel Boardman made an address on what the Red Seminary and later Miss Mabel Boardman made an address on what the Red Cross is doing in the war. Dr. J. William Hudson, of Boston, was among the guests. The home of Mr. and Mrs. Ramsay, formerly the residence of the late Justice Harlan, was opened for its first hospitality with yesterday's reception. Spring flowers decorated the drawing room, and the dining room, where Miss Richards, Miss Elizabeth Brown and Miss Laughton, of Boston, house guests of Mr. and Mrs. ..amsay. house guests of Mr. and Mrs. .amsay. at the end of did the honors, was adorned with pink Biltmore street, roses and white lilacs. Receiving with not yet been ma Mrs. Ramsay and Mrs. Bicknell were Mrs. Robert M. La Follette, Mrs. D. U. Fletcher, Mrs. James Martine, and Miss Agnes Hart Wilson. Mrs. Bicknell will sail April 1 on the Cretic. Her daugh-ters, who will accompany her, will be placed in school in Switzerland. Mr. Bicknell is in charge of the work of the American Red Cross in Europe.

Miss Katherine Langley, niece of Paymaster Gudger, and Philip Evans, son of Congressman and Mrs. John M. Evans, of Montana, will be ribbon bearers at the marriage of Miss Genevieve Walsh, daughter of Senator and Mrs. Thomas J. Walsh, to Paymaster Emmet C. Gudger, U. S. N., on April 5, in the ball room at the Highlands. Paymaster Gudger is the son of Congressman and Mrs. Gudger of North Carolina.

Others in the wedding the control of the room at the Highlands. Paymaster Gudger is the son of Congressman and Mrs. Gudger of North Carolina.

Others in the Wedding party will be Mrs. Sherman Hibbard, of Kansas City, and Mrs. George Lvon Hoag, of Poughkeepsie, N, Y., both glassmates of Miss Walsh at Vassar. Pearson Loose, of Philadelphia will be best man, and the ushers, all navy men, will be Lieut. Forde Todd, Dr. Lewis H. Wheeler, and Lleutenant Lee, all of the Mayflower, and Ensign Richard Evelyn Byrd, of Henry May.

Lieutenant Lee, all of the Mayflower, and Ensian Richard Evelyn Byrd, of the Dolphin. A reception will follow the ceremony, and the guests at both will be limited to the close friends of Miss Walsh and Paymaster Gudger.

Dr. Edward Breck addressed a distinguished audience which filled the picture gallery in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Belmont yesterday afternoon, upon "Our Navy and What It Means." Mr. Belmont presented Dr. Breck. Among those who attended the lecture were the Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. David Bagley, Rear Admiral Hemphill. Rear Admiral and Mrs. Pillsbury, Mr. and Mrs. George Eustis, Mr. and Mrs. David Jayne Hill, Mrs. Robert Traver, Miss Traver, Com-Mrs. Pillsbury. Mr. and Mrs. George Eustis. Mr. and Mrs. David Jayne Hill.
Mrs. Robert Traver, Miss Traver, Commander and Mrs. Macfarland, Mrs.
John Temple Graves, Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Mitchell. Mrs. William Barret
Ridgely, Mrs. Hemphill. Mrs. Robert
Hinckley, the Pev. and Mrs. Ward
Denys, Mrs. Logan Mrs. Logan Tucker,
Commander and Mrs. Sheldon Evans, and nearly every member of the Navy League, in all about 200.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Sill announce the engageemnt of their daughter, Miss Helen Dorothea Sill, to Dr. Capl Bell, of Williamstown, Pa. The wedding will take place at the home of the bride's parents in Massachusetts avenue, on April 21. Dr. Bell, formerly of this city, is a graduate of Cark.

Henr nome in New York, and J. R.
Clark, of Paris,

Miss Margaret Michle will return from
New York at the end of this week, Mrs.
New York at the end of this week, Mrs.
New York at the end of this week, Mrs.
New York at the end of this week, Mrs.
New York at the end of this week, Mrs.
New York at the end of this week, Mrs.
New York at the end of this week, Mrs.
New York at the end of this week, Mrs.
New York at the end of this week, Mrs.
New York at the end of this week, Mrs.
New York at the end of this week, Mrs.
New York at the end of this week, Mrs.
New York at the end of this week, Mrs.
New York at the end of this week, Mrs.
New York at the end of this week, Mrs.
New York at the end of this week, Mrs.
New York at the end of this week, Mrs.
New York at the end of this week, Mrs.
New York at the end of this week, Mrs.
New York at the end of this week, Mrs.
New York at the end of this week, Mrs.
New York at the end of this week, Mrs.
New York at the end of this week, Mrs.
New York at the end of this week, Mrs.
New York at the end of this week, Mrs.
New York at the end of this week, Mrs.
New York at the end of this week, Mrs.
New York at the end of this week, Mrs.
New York at the end of the hound of the head aughter in New York at the end of the head aughter in New York at the end of this week, Mrs.
New York at the nue, on April 21. Dr. Bell, formerly of this city, is a graduate of George Washington University.

Mrs. Joseph Davies, wife of the Com-missioner of Corporations, has invita-tions out for a luncheon on Thursdav afternoon, complimentary to her guest, Mrs. Percival Cochran, Dinners and Dances.

Miss Josephine Page, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Nelson Page, has cards out for a dance on April 8.

Mrs. Deles Blodgett will be hostess at a small dance on Friday evening.

Mrs. Robert McCormick will be amons the dinner hostesses tonight.

Mr. and Mrs. William Stewart, jr., entertained at dinner Saturday evening at their residence on Wyoming avenue in honor of Miss Helen Sill, whose marriage to Dr. Carl Bell, of Williamstown, Pa. will take place next month. Among Pa. will take place next month. Pa, will take place next month. Among the guests were Miss Helene Scott, Miss Annette Heim, Miss Shirley Tunstall, Miss Betty Monroe, Miss Rosalie Fairfax, and Dr. Carl Bell, Dr. James Rodgers, Mitcheft, Blaine, John Macintosh, Joseph Lucas, and Dr. Arthur Waters.

The Assistant Attorney General and Mrs. Charles Warren will give a dinner on the evening of April 15.

The Easter hop at the Naval Academy will take place on the evening of April 10.

Miss Mand Foster will be hostess at a dance Friday night.

dance Friday night.

among the dinner hosts of Thursday night.

The Assistant Secretary of Agriculture, Carl Vrooman, will speak at the Yale smoker tomorrow night. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Recside will entertain this evening the members of a weekly dancing club to which they be-long, and have invited a few additional

Mr. and Mrs. Chandler P. Anderson will be hosts at dinner tonight. Mr. and Mrs. Larz Anderson gave a

John R. McLean has recalled the invitations for the ball which he was to were the guests of honor at a beautifully appointed luncheon day by Mrs. Matthew T. Scott. sts, eighteen in number, were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Folk will give > Commandant of the Marine Corps and Mrs. George Barnett will entertain at dinner tonight.

The Spanish Ambassador and Madame Riano will be hosts at dinner Thursday

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Townsend will entertain at dinner Saturday night.
Mr. and Mrs. Woodward Haven will

Brig. Gen. J. A. Buchanan, U. S. A., retired, and his daughter, Miss Helen Buchanan; Major and Mrs. H. W. Scull, Col. Wilbur E. Wilder, U. S. A., Col. George A. Zinn, U. S. A., Lieut Col. Chauncey B. Baher, U. S. A., all of Washington, are in New York at the Hotel Astor. At the West Point alumni dinner on Saturday night. Lieutenant Colonel Baker was toastmaster.

Personals.

Miss Pocahontas Butler is planning to go to Leesburg, Va., after Easter to visit Miss Elizabeth White.

Mr. and Mrs. Percival Cochran, Elkhart, Ind., are the guests of the Commissioner of Corporations and Mrs. Joseph Davies.

Col. and Mrs. John Vicoman, of New are at the Shoreham Hotel, they will remain for several Colonel Vroeman is a cousin of weeks. he Assistant Secretary of Agriculture, Carl Vrooman.

The Assistant Secretary of the Treas-ury, Andrew Peters, and the Assistant Secretary of Agriculture, Carl Vroo-man, will go to New York on Thursday night to attend the dinner to be given Friday night by Harvard '95.

Miss Effic Kline Baker, whose engagement has been announced to Richard Wheatley Lewis, son of Col. I. N. Lewis, of Utica, N. Y. will be married at the end of April at her home on Biltmere street. Further plans have not yet been made.

Mrs. Whitelaw Reid, wife of the late American ambassador to the Court of St. James, who has been on a visit of four months in London with her daughter, Mrs. John Ward, reached New York yesterday from Liverpool on the American liner St. Paul, the third vessel of the there to arrive in New York within Miss Katherine Beach will go to New York tomorrow to visit Mr. and Mrs. Robert Patchin.

The Fort Myer pole team will re-turn to Fort Myer tomorrow from

5¢ AND 10¢

GRAHAM CRACKERS

Flavor such as you never before tasted in a Graham Cracker. Their freshness, crispness and nourishment out N. B. C. Graham Crackers on the daily menu of tens of thousands of families. Always keep them on hand.

Buy biscuit baked by NATIONAL BISCUIT COMPANY Always look for that Name

April Grafonola Records Are Ready 65c to $7.00

Special Terms for Grafonolas HOUSE & HERRMANN, Seventh and Eye Sts.

Mrs. William A. Jones and Miss Ann

Seymour Jones expect to go to Nev York on Sunday next for a short visit. Mrs. Nelson Read Johnson and Miss Marian Van Buren will return to Wash-ington on Friday or Saturday after a fortnight spent in New York.

Miss Dorothea Owen, daughter of Senator and Mrs. Robert L. Owen, will have as her guests during Easter week Miss Alice Bain, of Bryn Mawr, and Miss Josephine Halliburton, of New York. Next week Miss Owen will spend few days in New York. Brig. Gen. and Mrs. Albert L. Mills will leave Washington for New York to-morrow evening to be gone until Sat-

Colonel and Mrs. John W. Vrooman, of New York, are spending some time in Washington and are registered at the Shoreham.

in Washington and are reached the Shoreham.

Mrs. Hugh L. Scott, Mrs. Charles T. Monoher, and Mrs. Manus McCloskey will do the horors at the tea dance in the Administration building, which will follow the exhibition drills to be given at Fort Myer on March 26 and 27, for the benefit of the enlisted men's branch of the Young Men's Christian Association.

The Fifth Cavalry Band will furnish the music.

The drills, which are given through the courtesy of Col. Wilber E. Wilder, commandant at Fort Myer, will be the most interesting ever given in the riding hall. There will be jumping and Cossaek riding, and the entire troop of the Fifth Cavalry will present the leaders and members being conducted by the association.

In the team led by Miss Elisabeth F. Out one was the leader for yesterday, bringing in $115. Other teams brought in the following amounts: Mrs. Bayly, 1815. Other teams brought in the following amounts: Mrs. Bayly, 1816. Other teams brought in the following amounts: Mrs. Bayly, 1816. Other teams brought in the following amounts: Mrs. Bayly, 1816. Other teams brought in the following amounts: Mrs. Bayly, 1816. Other teams brought in the following amounts: Mrs. Bayly, 1816. Other teams brought in the following amounts: Mrs. Bayly, 1816. Other teams brought in the following amounts: Mrs. Bayly, 1816. Other teams brought in the following amounts: Mrs. Bayly, 1816. Other teams brought in the following amounts: Mrs. Bayly, 1816. Other teams brought in the following amounts: Mrs. Bayly, 1816. Other teams brought in the following amounts: Mrs. Bayly, 1816. Other teams brought in the following amounts: Mrs. Bayly, 1816. Other teams brought in the following amounts: Mrs. Bayly, 1816. Other teams brought in the following amounts: Mrs. Bayly, 1816. Other teams brought in the following amounts: Mrs. Bayly, 1816. Other teams brought in the following amounts: Mrs. Bayly, 1816. Other teams brought in Wilder, commandant at Fort Myer, will be the most interesting ever given in the riding hall. There will be jumping and Cossack riding, and the entire troop of the Fifth Cavalry will present a drill with horses driven tandem. A polo game between the Third Field Artillery and the Fifth Cavalry also will be a feature of the entertainment.

There will be wrestling by men on horseback and a brilliant exhibition of bareback riding. The artillery will give bareback riding. The artillery will give a demonstration of the methods used in range-finding and various means of communication in the field, after which

Battery F. Third Field Artillery, will give a drill. H. M. Conyess, of Brooklyn, N. I is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. James Runciman at the Ebbitt,

Mrs. William Thompson, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Huston Thompson for some time, has returned Captain and Mrs. B. P. Nicklin, U. A., are at the Ebbitt.

Spurns Germany's Offer

duest that his firm of horse buyers bid on a contract for furnishing the German government 20,000 horses for service in the European war has been received by George Woods, of the firm of Watson, Woods Brothers & Kelley, of Lincoln.

The firm will not bid on the contract. Woods said, because it has been found that the government's agents resort to sharp practice which robs the trans-LINCOLN, Neb., March 23 .- A re sharp practice which robs the trans-actions of the profit. The animals are contracted for subject to inspection, he says, and when delivered a large per-centage of them are declared to be below standard and so refused.

Slayers Find Relief

KANSAS CITY, Mo., March 23 .- Faith

G. U. Students to Give Senior Prom on Friday

The senior prom of Georgetown Uni versity, at the New Willard, Friday night, is expected to be the most im-posing social venture of the university year. Committees preparing for the function are headed by the following chairmen: John H. Madden, general chairman; Edmund Barrett, James A. Cahill, Rob-ert W. King, M. Francis Hinds, and W. E. Buckley

Let Us Examine Your Eyes Today If there is the least doubt as to the condition of your eyes-if you feel that they are not just right, don't delay having them examined one day later than you can help. Weak or strained eyes neglected speedily result in something much more serious and painful.

Eyes Examined Free. Roe Fulkerson OPTICIAN. 1407 F Street N. W. Opposite Willard Hotel.

Y. W. C. A. EXPECTS TO RAISE $1,250 DAILY

That Average Is Necessary to Secure $7,500 by Next Saturday Night.

Teams entered in the finance camoaign of the Young Women's Christian Association today are working with redoubled energy to raise the $7,500 which they hope to obtain before next Saturday evening.

As a result of the work yesterday. $325 was raised and considerably more promised. Although it is necessary to obtain an average of $1,250 a day in rder to get the desired amount within the given time, both Miss Florence M. Brown, general secretary, who has charge of the campaign, and Mrs. William Hamilton Bayly, president, feel confident the subscription will grow association.

Following are the leaders and members of the team:
Mrs. H. B. F. Macfarland, leader;
Mrs. Perry S. Heath, Mrs. Robert Lansing, Mrs. Kirk Holmes,
Mrs. W. M. Bayly, leader; Mrs. Frank
G. Carpenter, Mrs. John B. Kendall,
Mrs. Charles W. Richardson, Mrs. Merrill E. Gates, Mrs. William L. Brown,
Mrs A. M. Kepnell, and Miss. Phyllis

Mrs. A. M. Keppell, and Miss Phyllis Mrs. A. M. Keppell, and Miss Phyllis Herrmann.

Mrs. Herbert E. Day, leader; Mrs. John D. Hird, Mrs. Martha Ransome, Miss Margaret Larner, Miss Heien Hughes, Miss Isabel Riser, Miss Claudine Clements, Miss Eunice Wood, Miss Helen Fay, Miss Annie Jameson, Miss Katherine Williamson, Miss Katherine Herrmann, Miss Alice Deal.

Miss Elizabeth Pierre, leader; Mrs.

Miss Elizabeth Pierce, leader; Mrs. Thomas H. Mitchell, Mrs. Robert L. Jorby, Mrs. Fannie McAllister, Mrs. Thomas Robertson, Mrs. George Selbold Mrs. John B. Daish, Miss Kate S

White. Miss Frances E. Chickering, leader, To Buy 30,000 Horses

Miss Sallie Zimmerman, Miss Flora
Briggs, Miss Cora Frank, Miss Flora
ence Hedges, Miss Clara Jamison, Miss
that his firm of horse hivers

Miss Frances E. Chekering, leader,
Miss Sallie Zimmerman, Miss Flora
ence Hedges, Miss Clara Jamison, Miss
that his firm of horse hivers

Miss Frances E. Chekering, leader,
Miss Sallie Zimmerman, Miss Flora
ence Hedges, Miss Clara Jamison, Miss
Rhoda Martin, Miss Ruth Davison, Miss

Baid, because it has been found government's agents resort to bractice which robs the transformed to be received to inspection, he and when delivered a large performed the management of them are declared to be standard and so refused.

BY Find Relief

In Christian Science

The standard and so refused.

D. Olin Lee L. Mrs. H. G. Wilkins, leader; Mrs. Harvey Murray.

Mrs. Frank G. Wilkins, leader; Mrs. Page, Dr. Ada R. Thomas, Miss Mabel Nelson Thurston, Mrs. Frank E. Edington, Mrs. Thomas P. Johnson, Mrs. T. Homas P. Johnson, Mrs. T. Homas Maicolm Price, Miss Stella Scharrf, Miss Vera Brugart, Miss Heloise Brainard, Miss Isabel Stone, Miss Nellie Minks, Miss Julia Hoge, Mrs. William Joseph Showalter, and Miss Mary E. Holland,

HERE'S use for Uneeda Biscuit every day, in every home, in every street, in every are uniformly fresh, uniformly

NATIONAL BISCUIT COMPANY Always look for that Name

|HOREHAM HOTEL H NORTHWEST AT PIPTEENTH Washington?

European Plan. Fireproof

Cuisine and Service of the Highest Order.

R. S. DOWNS, Mgr.

The New Willard Supper Dances In Red Room Monday and Thursday Evenings

Meyer Davis and His Orchestra

Terminal Taxicab Co.

New Cabs

North 1212

YOU," HIS LAST NOTE ONE DEAD, 7 MISSING SORRY I CAN'T WED

Fiance Disappears on Bridal Eve and Neighbors Divide Wedding Cake.

NEW YORK, March 23.—Pretty little Florence Robbins, seventeen, ruefully recalled the song, "Waiting at the Church," yesterday as she art in her home, Borough Park, waiting for her prospective bridegroom. Figderick Woodward, who disappeared Saturday. "Late Friday evening he called me on the phone and asked me to meet him downtown in Brooklay Saturday morning to get the ring," the said. "Just as I was getting my hat to keep the appointment the mailman brought me a letter. a letter. 'Dear Florence,' it read, 'am sorr;

I can't marry you as planned. An going South on business. Hastily, Fred. "That was all. I haven't heard from Mr. Woodward's parents say he is "away on business." The wedding cake was divided among neighbors.

West Virginia Divorce Lawyers to Lose Fees!

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., March 23. Lawyers of West Virginia who have been reaping large incomes from di-vorce cases will be virtually driven out of business on May 21, when the new divorce laws become effective. The new laws provide: Court may name a commissioner to "prevent col-lusion or fraud;" plaintiff must be resident of State of at least a year; after divorce is granted neither o couple may marry within six month unless they remarry; whether defend ant answers charges or not, case shall be tried independently of either par-ty in proceedings; uncorroborated tes-timony is insufficient for divorce.

Unable to Join His Colors, Tries Suicide

NOBLESVILLE, Ind., March 23.-Fritz O. Graff, twenty-four, a native of Germany, attempted suicide by shooting himself near the heart with a revolver. It is thought that he will recover. He admits that he tried to take his life because he did not have sufficient money to return to his native country and en-list in the army. Graff has three brothers in the war and frequent letters from them caused him to become homesick and aroused his patriotism. He has been in this country two years and has worked most of the time as a farm hand.

Advances Suspended in Lake-and-Rail Rates

The Interstate Commerce Commission has ordered suspended until July 17, advances in lake-and-rail rates which were to have been effective March 27. The order affects traffic between such cities as New York, Buffalo, Cleveland, Chicago, Milwaukee, and Duluth.

IN INFIRMARY BLAZE

Indiana Institution Nearly Wiped

diana Institution Nearly Wiped

Out by Fire of Unknown

Origin.

TUNCIE, Ind., March 23.—At least man is dead, seven are missing, whom three or four are thought to dead, and the Delaware County Inmary, five miles east of here, is alst totally destroyed as the result of ire of unknown origin early today, he fire, which was discovered in a rdrobe on the ground floor, spread idly through the old building, makit impossible for rescuers to reach men's dormitory on the upper urs, and it is feared several of the sing from that section lost their seroic work of man who with the seroic work of man who with the
sing from that section lost their seroic work of man who with the seroic work of man who with the
sing from that section lost their seroic work of man who with

NEW YORK, March 23.—Two which is into which was blown the name of E. C. Booz, a Philadelphia distiller of about 1840, were sold for $28 and $330 from the curio collection of Harry B. Harmer, of Philadelphia.
The tradition attached to Booz is that his brand of liquor was so popular that it introduced "booze" into the vernacular and that it accounts
to this day for the phrase, "I'll have some booze," which all barkeepers
the tradition attached to Booz is that his brand of liquor was so popular that it introduced "booze" into
the vernacular and that it accounts
to this day for the phrase, "I'll have
some booze," which all barkeepers
the rescal to inean whisky. The old Er glish word "bouse" meant the same thing, and Sheridan used "booz ed" in "The School for Scandal," but Philadelphians say their Booz reviving the old building, makit impossible for rescuers to reach men's dormitory on the upper and had his bottles made in the form of a l. g cabin, the Harrison symbol.
The bottles were eight inches high and supposed to hold a quart. There are no memories of Booz except his enduring name. MUNCIE, Ind., March 23.-At least one man is dead, seven are missing, of whom three or four are thought to be dead, and the Delaware County Infirmary, five miles east of here, is almost totally destroyed as the result of most totally destroyed as the result of a fire of unknown origin early today. The fire, which was discovered in a wardrobe on the ground floor, spread rapidly through the old building, making it impossible for rescuers to reach the men's dormitory on the upper floors, and it is feared several of the missing from that section lost their lives.

Heroic work of men who rushed to the scene from here, who fought with hand buckets only, saved the nearly completed new building near by. Arrangements are being made to care for the inmates temporarily in the new

New Jersey Woman Wills Home to Cats and Dogs

ELIZABETH, N. J., March 23 .- Occupying a house in Ashland avenue, East Summit, a company of dogs and cats, which were the pets of the late Mrs. Mary Romaine Wright, will be allowed to enjoy undisturbed their present abode to enjoy undisturbed their present abode until they go voluntarily to another home. In the will of Mrs. Wright, Mrs. Wright's daughter, Mrs. Frederick C. Kelley, is asked to see that this wish is carried out.

The home is kept heated and the animals are fed regularly. They seem to be waiting expectantly for the return of their protector. Mrs. Kelley said she hoped to have the animals become sufficiently attached to her to live at her house, which is only a short distance from the Wright homestead.

Mrs. Wright was noted for befriend-Mrs. Wright was noted for befriend-ing dumb animals. With her husband, the late Seaman L. Wright, she lived for more than forty years at the

Stolen Pet Chicken Greets Owner in Market

COLUMBUS, Ind., March 23,-Some one stole six chickens from Mrs. Charles Pruitt. One of them was a pet, and she declared the chicken would recognize her if she could find it. She finally called at the Carmichael Produce Company's place of Stage Duel Causes Death.

NACOGDOCHES, Tex., March 23.—At an entertainment in Melrose. Prof. Coleman Risinger, who was acting the part of the man to be shot, received a bad wound in his chest from a paper wad and died.

In a short time she found her pet and the chicken came in ning to greet her. Then she identified the other chickens. She was neighbor, and so she filed an affidavit against him in the city court. Samuel Harden was arrested.

HERE'S THE MAN WHO PUT BOOZ IN BOOZE

Bottles Made For Him In 1840 Now Sell as High as

$28 and $30.

SOCIAL TEA

For porch or lawn, picnic or party, luncheon, dinner, tea or dessert. Social Tea Biscuit are equally good and always appropriate. A delicious morsel to refresh one in the hot summer afternoons and evenings.

ASSOCIATED STORES 7th and G Sts. N. W. Surpassing Soda!

The Associated Drug Stores have won a great reputation for their Soda! It's beyond anything you ever tasted—and the lowest priced yet quoted. Filtered water, fruit syrups from freshest fruits, dandy ice cream, fine, rich cream, whipped cream par excellence; iced cold, or piping hot—as you wish.

Clean—till we're cranks on the topic! Hygienic to the last degree! To improve on our Soda-is beyond human ability. Only to 7th & G Sts. N. W.

Woodward & Lothrop

New York-WASHINGTON-Paris.

Beautiful New Blouses to Accompany the Easter Suit

LATE STYLES WITH MODERATION IN PRICE. Blouse styles are as varied as are those of the new Easter Suit, and equally fascinating. There is a relationship quite complete and desirable between the two. We have never offered so many interesting models, and it is a source of constant wonder that such diversity is achieved in simplicity.

There are no extremes and every blouse is delightfully feminine in mode, soft exquisite shades and the charming color contrasts often used, with such gentle and subdued touch.

Crepe de Chine and Georgette Crepe Blouses

These two favored silks comprise a very extensive showing, variously trimmed with tucks and buttons, laces, ribbons, and embroidery. The new allover shadow embroideries are quaint and pretty, the narrow ribbon ties that are often drawn around the neck in contrasting tone have an old-fashioned beauty; buttons in many odd shapes in self and different

Priced at $5.00, $5.75, $6.75, $8.75, and $10.75

The New Tipperary Mary Blouse.

Made of crepe de chine, with convertible collar and turn-back cuffs; box plaited front and back, finished with soft crepe silk ties in green, pink, maize, and other colors.

$5.75 each.

Crepe de Chine Blouses in Simple Styles

One of the most striking of these is the New Country Club model, with pockets and fastenings of large pearl buttons; dozens of other styles in tucked, tailored, shadow embroidered and ribbon trimmed effects. The soft neutral colors add much beauty-flesh.

peach, maize, putty, sand, and white. Priced at $2.25, $2.95, $3.50, $3.75, $5.00 and $5.75.

Exquisite Lace Blouses.

Lace Blouses in filet, shadow, and Spanish Laces, of exquisite pattern and mesh, some of them made over colored silk camisoles, or pretty foundations laced with ribbons; Selfembroidered All-over Nets are also very pretty; metal and thread embroideries, gilt trimmings and similar distinctive touches characterize the showing.

Priced. $3.95 to $18.75.

Pongee Silk Waists.

There is a return to vogue of this simple silk. A plain tailored model with convertible collar; yoke and sleeves joined with entre deux, the price is $2.25; another strictly tailored style with straps and fastening of pearl buttons.

$2.95.

New Handkerchief Linen Blouses.

The very latest vogue is for the pretty colored Handkerchief Linen Blouses; they are made with convertible collar and long sleeves. Plain colors in rose, blue, green, and white at $3.75, and the wide awning stripes in lavender and white and rose and white at $4.50.

Dainty Lingerie Blouses.

Latest creations for spring in soft sheer fabrics and numerous styles, with trimmings of Point Venice and Valenciennes laces, combined with dainty sprays of hand-embroidery in some instances. Priced from $2.25 to $6.75; a new model of French Voile, with Valenciennes collar, cuffs and yoke and detachable ruffle. Priced

$5.00.